Meta4Education

Master Practitioner in NLP for Education and Learning &
Certificate of Teaching Excellence

“Thank you so much for organising so well and teaching brilliantly throughout a hugely enjoyable weekend! Your energy and passion are inspirational. I have been using the Meta and Milton models all day at work and have had both excellent results and tremendous fun”.

Gill

You will benefit from this course as a Lecturer, Teacher, Trainer, Manager in Education Youth worker or Parent and are enthusiastic about applying the latest developments in NLP to teaching and learning. People in all walks of life with a desire to help children and young people learn better are welcome.

A NLP Practitioner certificate is a pre-requisite of this programme

Module 1 – Mastering NLP

You may have attended a practitioner and wondered how to integrate the learning into your practice as an educator. This course enables you to master your practitioner level skills and apply them thoroughly and effectively to teaching and learning, as a teacher or tutor, manager and with your team.

During this module you learn;

To master your current NLP skills and learn to build flexibility into your work
Learn many new skills including;

- The fundamentals of NLP for mastery
- Meta Resource States including input and output states
- The utilisation of meta resource states with others
- The meta model in depth
- Shifting clients easily from the surface structure to deep structure.
- Slight of mouth patterns used elegantly and effectively
- The advanced use of the Milton patterns
- Metaphors to inspire the imagination and create change
- Inoculation against objections
- Conversational Timeline work
- Integrated use of Meta Programs with clients and students
- Convincer Strategies for great learning and change
- The difference between Modelling and Strategy Elicitation
- Practical experience of the processes for installing new strategies or changing old ones.
- Conversational Applications of NLP Techniques

A Practitioner certificate in NLP is a prerequisite of this programme.

“Before teaching before learning begin with something more. Teaching is more than recapitulation. To teach install good learning strategies, to make this worth having you can install something more, call it hope.”
Dr Richard Bandler - Using your brain for a change

META is the only organisation licenced by the Society of NLP to deliver this programme. We bring together the best of NLP with the best in education to create this unique qualification. This course enables you to develop flexibility in your behaviour and extend your skills so you can formulate your own effective strategies to promote learning and make quantum shifts in your teaching practice.

Module 2 - Teaching Excellence & Applied Master Practitioner in NLP

During this module you learn;

The learning environment

- Deepen your understanding of language patterns to create states of competence, confidence and excellence to ensure learning happens.
- Learn our 6 keys to effective learning
- Create supreme states for yourself to deal with anything that your students can throw at you!
- Create learning that is generative, fun and full of hope
- Use the art of metaphor to create powerful transformation and deepen learning
- Utilise specific states of consciousness, based on the latest brain research, to promote learning and create curiosity, confidence and enthusiasm
- Design strategies for learning specific skills and tasks
- Use your voice effectively to deliver your message with confidence

NLP and Technology

- Create amazing audio and visual presentations that really work
- Experience the latest technology and brain research so you can create very specific states for learning

NLP 1-2-1

- Change or eliminate inappropriate or undesirable behaviours
- Use propulsion systems to overcome reluctance
- Understand how to illicit strategies that don't work and install exquisite strategies that do work
- Discover effective persuasion techniques and the language of influence
- Communicate to get the best results and ensure success
- Work with the reluctant students and members of staff
- Have more fun learning than you thought possible!

NB Module one must be completed before Module two unless you have a Master Practitioner on NLP qualification.
